

The River Nile

The Nile is the longest, most famous river in the world. How long do you think it is? Do you know how the Ancient Egyptians used the Nile? Read on to find out more...

The Nile waters

The Nile waters flows though Africa into the Mediterranean Sea. The Nile has a currant at the bottom of it's waters. Fish swam in the Nile waters of the Nile.

The River Nile

The gods

Hapi was the Nile god and Sobek was the crocodile god. The Ancient Egyptians believed that the tears of the goddess Isis made the Nile overflow. They celebrated this each year with a festival called the night of the Drop.

The farming

Every year the Nile flooded and left behind rich dark soil on both sides of the river. The Ancient Egyptians used the Nile for collecting water, hunting, fishing and watering crops.

By Amelie and Laura