

The River Nile

Would you like to find out about the longest river in the world? It is called the River Nile. Without the River Nile, Ancient Egypt would not have existed. Read on to find out more...

The Gods of the Nile

Hapi was the Nile god. Sobek was the god of the crocodiles. They were very important. The Ancient Egyptians believed that the tears of the goddess made the Nile overflow. They celebrated this each year with a festival called the night of the drop.

Food and crops

Everything the farmers grow depended on the Nile. Every year the River Nile flooded and left behind rich dark soil. So the farmers could grow their crops.

Why did people live by the Nile?

The Ancient Egyptians used the river for collecting water, hunting, fishing and watering crops without the water of the River Nile. Ancient Egypt would not have excised.

By Mia Millie and Lois