

The River Nile

Do you want to learn about the longest river in the world? People depended on the Nile for transport as well as water and food. Read on to find out more!

Gods of the River Nile

Hapi was the Nile god. Sobek was the crocodile god. Isis made the Nile overflow.

Do you know what the Nile is?

The River Nile is the longest river in the world. The Ancient Egyptians believed that the tears of the goddess Isis made the Nile overflow. They celebrated this each year with a festival called The Night Of The Drop.

Food and transport

People depended on the Nile for transport as well as water. Everything depended on the River Nile hunting and lots more.

Floods on the River Nile

Every year the Nile would flood. Leaving rich dark soil for the crops. The Nile flooded leaving little islands in the water.

Did people live by the River Nile?

Great cities like Memphis and Thebes were built next to the River Nile. Egyptian people still live along the banks of the River Nile.

Water of the River Nile

Without the waters of the Nile Egypt would not have existed. People need the Nile for food and transport. The Egyptian's used the river for collecting water, hunting, fishing and watering crops.

By Tegan and Jessica

